

The Gethyn Davies Prize in Economics

This Prize is provided in memory of Professor Gethyn Davies from the income of a gift to the University of Wales of £2,000 given by his wife and family.

1. The Prize will be awarded annually,<sup>1</sup> in case of sufficient merit, to a final year candidate for a degree in which Economics shall be the major subject of study who, in the opinion of the external examiner, has attained the highest standard in Economics in the examinations held at Cardiff University.

---

These regulations are formed on the basis of the original bequest. When making an award, Trustees may apply discretion and interpret the bequest for modern times.

1. The actual value of the award will be subject to available funds.